

Down through the years the world has heard of the legendary tales of a group of people that have become idolized gods and goddesses of all times: James Cleveland, Albertina Walker, Cassietta Baker George, Inez Andrews, Dorothy Norwood, James Herndon, Shirley Caesar, Delores Washington and Josephine Howard. The truth of how it really happened and unfolded hasn't been told until now.

Who was really responsible for the success of The Caravans, causing the other women to be able to go through the fold and branch off into successful solo careers? Was it Albertina Walker, Shirley Caesar or Cassietta Baker George?

Who wrote and led the timeless hit songs that burst them into the number one gospel group of all times? What are the titles of these songs and which Caravan albums are these songs found on? Why isn't Cassietta Baker George's name being mentioned among the other ladies now?

And the number one question that is circulating around the world now is: if Albertina Walker and Shirley Caesar have so much power, why are they afraid to bring up the name of Cassietta Baker George?

Why did Cassietta Baker George's departure from the group in 1965 cause The Caravans to disband in 1966, less than a year later? Why couldn't they go on without her? Which Caravan had a sexual relationship with Cassietta's nephew?

Why have there been rumors circulating for close to 50 years that some of the women were lesbians? Who are they? Which Caravan was found on her knees in a hotel room performing oral sex on another female?

Night of Palms with Bishop G.E. Patterson, The Stillborn Child, Why Aunt Cassietta, Aunt Cassietta Meets James Cleveland, The Legendary Prima-Donna Goddess, The Stolen Mystiques and The Conspiracy of the Torn Mantle along with other very eye opening, graphic and explicit chapters reveal and expose the true hypocrisy, lies and deceit by those that walked, talked and sang with Cassietta Baker George for their own glory. There's not a stone unturned in Miss Walk Around Heaven All Day: The Untold Story of Cassietta Baker George.
